West Valley City Police and South Salt Lake Police will team up tonight to get drunk and drugged drivers off of the roads and to encourage the public to stay sober or get pulled over this holiday season.

Officers from WVC PD and South Salt Lake will meet for briefing at 9:00pm, then work throughout both cities to look for impaired drivers. During this joint task force operation, officers from either city can arrest DUI suspects in both cities.

WVC PD Lieutenant Scott Buchanan will be available for interview about the operation at 9:15 pm outside the Utah Cultural Celebration Center, 1355 West 3100 South.

We will be able to offer media ride-alongs on a limited basis. If you are interested in doing a ride-along in conjunction with this event, please call me or email to schedule your spot by 5pm. Unfortunately, we will not be able to accommodate late requests.
